Of Education Kamrup College focused on necessity of IPRs and their different issues at present day context. Before starting the technical sessions students from the economics department presented their seminar papers on the topic. The Technical session-I on IPR by Mr. Dwipendra Kr. Sarma was extremely innovative. He elevated the topic to its crescendo by citing simple examples from day-to-day life eg- a combo Thali served in a restaurant and its patenting aspects. His take on IPR was so simple, crisp and precise that even a person from a non-Juridical background could understand and comprehend the same. There were various questions raised by participants especially research scholars perusing their doctoral studies on IPR and the resource person ensured their queries.

The Technical session-II on by Dr. Subrata Barman on Trademark and Designing also ensured that all aspects are covered both from an academic and entrepreneurial standpoint. He evaluated statements like ‘Every brand is a trademark, but all trademarks are not brand’ was very impressive, while citing examples of the Joha rice. Kola khar, assamese gamosa, etc”. The technical session was followed by a closing remark by Dr. Padmaja Chetia who comprehended the discourses given by both the resource persons. The session concluded with a closing remark by Dr. Kabita Choudhury, Coordinator-IQAC and Head- Dept of Education who thanked the resource persons and participants.
