Seminar on Look East Policy in India Cum College Foundation Day

Dated: 25-07-2022

Kamrup College, Chamata organized a one-day seminar on Look East Policy in India on July 25, 2022 in the Community Hall. The seminar focused on the need and importance of Look East Policy for North-East economy. The programme started at 10.30 am with the welcome address by Dr. Debendra Kr. Bezbaruah, Principal of Kamrup College. The dignitaries on the dias were Prof. Mukunda Sarma, Principal, Bhawanipur Anchalik College, and Mr. Chandra Mohan Patowary, Minister of Social welfare, Govt of Assam. Opening remarks and introduction of the programme was given by Mr. Tilak Sarma. Resource person Prof. Mukunda Sarma talked on opening the doors for maritime oriented look east policy by bringing in pictures of the coastal states of East India. This way it will help to build relations with south-eastern nations that are dominantly coastal. He stated that the Look East policy was seen as a step competing China's presence in East. Another resource person Mr. Chandra Mohan Patowary focused on the difference between Look East and Act East policy. According to him, Look East policy focused on ASEAN plus Economic integration plus Asian countries plus security cooperations. Several participants delivered speech on the topic. Finally, the vote of thanks was offered by coordinator of the programme.
